Shaking the Tree (package of films on human rights)

June 5 2012

Dear Bev,

I was delighted to have been featured in your film festival on human rights in 2011 with my trilogy about Nepali migrant workers. I was thrilled that my films were playing with some remarkable films from other parts of the world.

It was good too that so many young people got to see the films with your Shaking The Tree school outreach program. My films have been in quite a few festivals but the audience, I've found, is usually older.

If you still think these films about migrant workers are relevant, I'd be happy to make them available again for the "Shaking The Tree" school program in 2012 and 2013, and will be available on a limited basis to speak at some of the screenings.

Congratulations again on a important and relevant festival in 2011, and wish you the best with the festival in 2012.

Warm Regards,

Kesang Tseten
